DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 25-41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Moran (U.S. 6,430,542).

Moran discloses a system and method for providing automated coaching for a financial modeling and counseling system over a network to a user, comprising:

- ♦ inputting personal financial data of a user (claim 1; 129);
- ♦ inputting user preferences (claims 1-6);
- ♦ inputting user financial goals (claims 1-6);
- ♦ inputting external financial market data (claims 1-6);
- ♦ processing the personal financial data, the external financial market data, the user outputting automated coaching advice presented in a natural language format, wherein the automated coaching advice includes a proposed product configuration formulated to comply with the user preferences and the user financial goals and a projection of an effect of the proposed product configuration on attaining the user financial goals (method steps of figs. 3-39);
- ♦ wherein part of the personal financial data includes an aggregated cash flow model, an investment target value, a target date for achieving financial user financial goals (fig.42); and
